Ten Kid Friendly Restaurants We Love

Monday, July 30, 2012 | 6:00 AM By Hulafrog

Skip the supermarket and cancel the sitter, go ahead and prepare for a dining experience the whole family can enjoy (we're not joking). We've put together a list of ten kid friendly restaurants we love—and struggled because there are so many excellent eateries in our area that will welcome your little ones with open arms (yep, you read that right).

So grab the kiddos and head out for a dinner you're sure to enjoy. Your kids will be entertained and you and your other half can enjoy a night out, good food, and even an adult beverage or two.

Woodcleft Crab Shack, Freeport: When you're in the mood for a bit more than a quick "in and out" meal, this little crab shack is perfect for the family. It's a cozy little place in the heart of Freeport Nautical Mile. Mom and dad can enjoy their favorite seafood dishes while the kiddo's enjoy a good ol' burger and fries, a personal pizza pie or anything their little heart desires.
